

Every Child in Foster Care is Eligible for Some Form of Funding

If a child is denied foster care funding, there is help!

The Alliance for Children's Rights

Intake Line: 213-368-6010

Types of cases:

- Specialized care rates for foster care or AAP
- ARM-rate for prospective adoptive parents
- Denial based on lack of court findings
- Denial based on illegal detention prior to Dependency Court intervention
- Denial based on more than 180 days after the Voluntary Placement Agreement
- Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA) home approval issues
- Denial of children over 18 years with Dependency Court jurisdiction
- CalWORKS

Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles

Intake Line: 213-640-3901

Types of case:

- Overpayment
- Rosales (child living with a relative prior to Detention is eligible for funding)
- Denial based on parent income
- Denial based on parental deprivation
- Denial based on lack of court findings
- Denial based on more than 180 days after the Voluntary Placement Agreement
- CalWORKS

Public Counsel

Intake Line: 213-385-2977, Extension 500

Types of cases:

- Specialized care rates for foster care or AAP
- ARM-rate for prospective adoptive parents

When in doubt, contact one of the above organizations.

The Alliance, Legal Aid and Public Counsel work together to make sure you get the correct information!