THE ALLIANCE FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS TO HOST 2ND ANNUAL "DINNER WITH FRIENDS"

STAR STUDDED EVENT TO BENEFIT THE NEXTSTEP PROGRAM FOR YOUTH TRANSITIONING OUT OF FOSTER CARE SYSTEM

LOS ANGELES – Date – The Alliance for Children's Rights will host the second annual "Dinner With Friends" event on Tuesday, June 2nd, at 6:00pm. The star-studded event, which supports the NextSTEP Program for youth aging out of foster care, will be held at the home of Daniel Weiss & Abby Wolf-Weiss, event chair and president, television division, Smoke House Pictures.

The event is hosted by the Friends of The Alliance, which is a group of individuals who support The Alliance for Children's Rights in raising awareness about the organization, participating in special programs and raising funds to continue its mission. Scheduled guests and supporters of the event include, Rachelle and Ed Begley Jr, Tia Carrere, Fred Durst, Joely Fisher, Tricia Leigh Fisher, Peri Gilpin, Dana Gould, Gail Berman and The Alliance Board of Director's Angie Harmon, and Sue Naegle of HBO.

This year's "Dinner with Friends" event will bring together L.A.'s top philanthropic, entertainment and corporate communities to enjoy fine wine and cuisine from sponsoring restaurants, caterers and beverage companies throughout the city, including Boraan Thai Restaurant, CPK, Crumbs Bake Shop, Cuvee, The Edison, Fiji Water, Flav H2O, Jillian's, Kai's European Catering, PRP Wines, Larchmont Larder, Library Alehouse, Pitfire Pizza, Oatmeal Butter Cupcakes Company, Third Stop Gastro Pub, popchips, Bossa Nova and The Pampered Chef. In addition, Teleflora will be providing the floral design. Ernst & Young is a Patron Circle Sponsor.

The Alliance for Children's Rights provides free legal services and advocacy to protect the rights of impoverished and abused children and youth so that they have safe, stable homes, health care and the education they need to thrive. Since its founding in 1992, The Alliance has helped over 70,000 children and youth, including: children in need of adoption or a stable home; children denied medical treatment, public benefits or educational services; and youth transitioning out of the foster care system.

The Alliance staff includes lawyers, social workers, and advocates supplemented by thousands pro bono attorneys, paralegals and other volunteers from all walks of life who donate their time to help disadvantaged children and ensure that their voices are heard.

For many children and youth, The Alliance is the only connection to a safer, brighter future.
