

Cheetos presents ... the RIGHT to LAUGH to benefit The Alliance for Children's Rights is an evening of comedy featuring Drew Carey as the Master of Ceremonies with Adam Carolla, Dana Gould, Bob Saget, and Sarah Silverman! This evening of laughter will be held at the Catalina Jazz Club in Hollywood on March 15th, 2010, with over 250 guests from the entertainment, corporate and philanthropic communities. This entertaining, fun and worthwhile event will raise funds for The Alliance for Children's Rights, a non-profit organization that provides free legal services for impoverished and abused children so that they have safe homes, health care and the education they need to thrive.

The RIGHT to LAUGH is hosted by the Friends of The Alliance, an auxiliary group of individuals who support The Alliance in raising awareness and vital resources to continue its work. The evening will begin with a cocktail reception including a silent auction for guests to make their bids on generously donated items. Guests will then enter the cabaret style atmosphere and prepare themselves for a memorable comedy and musical show.

Sponsorship opportunities are available with benefits and recognition that includes a VIP reception. Individual tickets are also available.

Join event sponsors, Cheetos, CBS, UTA, Comedy Central, Dreamworks Animation, 459 Productions, Robins Kaplan Miller & Ciresi, LLP, Eastdil Secured, BermanBraun, Warner Bros, Kaplan Stahler Agency and Chaz Hammel-Smith/Ebert Foundation and become part of the success by participating in this fun, exciting and worthwhile opportunity to make life a little easier for our most vulnerable citizens!
