

Chief Development Officer

The Alliance for Children's Rights has an exciting opportunity for an experienced development leader to provide oversight and execution of a $6 million fundraising program for one of the most well regarded nonprofits in LA. Charity Navigator awarded the Alliance its highest 4-star rating for the sixth year in a row, a ranking given to only 4% of charities nationwide. The Chief Development Officer will be a hard-working fundraiser with a track record of building and sustaining relationships, and raising money from a variety of sources.

ABOUT THE ALLIANCE

The Alliance for Children's Rights protects the rights of impoverished, abused and neglected children and youth. Our lawyers, advocates and social workers, together with hundreds of pro bono attorneys and community volunteers, ensure children have safe, permanent homes and can access the healthcare, education and financial resources they need. We also help transition-age youth achieve self-sufficiency, and work statewide to improve child welfare practices and policies in order to remove the many barriers our clients face. Since 1992, we have helped more than 125,000 children.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Reporting to the CEO, the CDO responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

- Overseeing all fundraising initiatives and activities of a $6 million annual fundraising program
- Growing the annual fund
- Cultivating new and existing relationships with key supporters, and committee and board members
- Identifying new corporate sponsorship opportunities and cause marketing
- Producing successful appeals and social media campaigns
- Overseeing events manager in producing several annual events, developing fundraising plans and motivating event committee members
- Maintaining an active volunteer corps, including auxiliary groups such as Friends of the Alliance and the Alliance of Moms
- Managing staff, including the Events Manager, Foundation and Corporate Grants Manager, Development Assistant and Database Manager
- Ensuring a collaborative work environment among development staff and with program staff
- Working closely with the Communications Department to ensure messages appeal to donors and print and electronic marketing materials meet the needs of the Development Department

QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate will have a track record for raising funds and managing a Development Department.

Must be energetic, enjoy a fast-paced environment, and have excellent follow through. Other qualifications include:

- Outgoing, talented communicator who enjoys donor cultivation and stewardship
- Demonstrated leadership to a range of constituents and committees
- Excellent management of time and talent
- Very well organized with good multi-tasking ability
- Good writing skills to craft pitches and compelling appeals and correspondence
- Passionate advocate for children's rights
- Currently living in and very familiar with Los Angeles
- At least 5 years of experience in high level development, including successful management/coaching of development staff, is required.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits. Please submit your cover letter and resume to j.parrilla@kids-alliance.org. For more information about the Alliance visit kids-alliance.org.

The Alliance for Children's Rights believes that all persons are entitled to equal employment opportunities and does not discriminate against its employees or applicants because of race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, sexual orientation, disability or medical condition.