POSITION SUMMARY

Under the supervision of the OYC Director, the OYC Program Manager is responsible for collaborating in leading complex programs and partnerships. This is a full-time exempt position. The ideal candidate is a dynamic and goal-driven professional. The position will interact with various community organizations, educational institutions, employers, and public agencies to improve education and employment outcomes for young adults who are or have been in foster care. The OYC Program Manager supports the work of the OYC Director and often attends external meetings, work groups or events representing the OYC Director. The Program Manager facilitates the OYC Young Leaders, which is co-facilitated by the Outreach and Engagement Fellow, may lead or facilitate other projects as assigned, and creates and/or presents complex presentations to OYC partners. In addition, the OYC Program Manager will explore and lead the Career Technical Education (CTE) opportunities for foster youth and help educate partnership about the opportunities available in growing employment industries in Los Angeles.

OYC is an exciting initiative that mobilizes cross-sector agencies, community-based programs and investments of the Los Angeles region to improve three key outcomes for transition-age foster and cross-over probation youth (TAY), ages 16 – 24:

1. High School Completion (graduation or GED attainment)
2. Post-secondary enrollment and credential completion
3. Workforce readiness and gainful employment with a living wage

OYC is based on the idea of working collaboratively to create system change and seeks to improve outcomes for foster youth in Los Angeles County.

ABOUT THE ALLIANCE

The Alliance for Children’s Rights protects the rights of impoverished, abused and neglected children and youth. Our lawyers, advocates and social workers, together with hundreds of pro bono attorneys and community volunteers, ensure that children who are at-risk or in foster care have safe, stable homes and can access the education, healthcare, and financial supports that they need. We also help transition-age youth overcome barriers to their stability and success, and we work statewide to improve child welfare practices and policies in order to remove the many obstacles that our clients face. Since 1992, we have helped over 150,000 children.

Charity Navigator has awarded the Alliance its highest 4-star rating for the past nine years in a row. This puts the Alliance in the top 2% of charities in the U.S. rated by Charity Navigator. The 4-star rating reflects the Alliance’s sound fiscal management and commitment to accountability and transparency.

The Alliance is well known in the child welfare community for its knowledge, expertise, and accomplishments. Alliance staff members and our partnering pro bono attorneys are advocates for our most vulnerable children and their caregivers. Being the voice of young people who often have no voice, and otherwise could be forgotten, is incredibly rewarding.
